Lamentations 1

Lam. 1:1 How the city sits alone / That was full of people! / She who was once great among the nations / Has become like a widow; / She who was a princess among the provinces / Has become tributary.
Lam. 1:2 Bitterly she weeps in the night, / And her tears are on her cheeks. / There is no one to comfort her / Among all her lovers; / All her friends have dealt treacherously with her; / They have become her enemies.
Lam. 1:3 Judah has gone into exile, away from affliction / And away from great servitude; / She dwells among the nations / But finds no rest; / All her pursuers have overtaken her / In the midst of distress.
Lam. 1:4 The ways of Zion mourn, / For no one comes to the appointed feast; / All her gates are desolate; / Her priests groan; / Her virgins are afflicted, / And she is in bitterness.
Lam. 1:5 Her adversaries have become the head; / Her enemies prosper; / For Jehovah has afflicted her / Because of the multitude of her transgressions; / Her little ones have gone into captivity / Before the adversary.
Lam. 1:6 And all her majesty has departed / From the daughter of Zion; / Her princes have become like deer / That find no pasture, / And they have fled without strength / Before the pursuer.
Lam. 1:7 In the days of her affliction and her wanderings, / Jerusalem remembers / All her precious things / Which were in the days of old, / When her people fell into the hand of the adversary, / And there was no one to help her. / The adversaries saw her; / They mocked at her downfall.
Lam. 1:8 Jerusalem has sinned grievously; / Therefore she has become an impurity. / All who honored her despise her, / Because they have seen her nakedness; / And she groans / And turns backwards.
Lam. 1:9 Her uncleanness is in her skirts; / She did not remember her latter end; / Therefore she has come down astonishingly; / There is no one to comfort her. / O Jehovah, see my affliction, / For the enemy has magnified himself.
Lam. 1:10 The adversary has spread out his hand / Over all her precious things, / For she has seen the nations / Enter her sanctuary, / Concerning whom You commanded that they should not enter / Into Your assembly.
Lam. 1:11 All her people groan; / They seek bread; / They have given their precious things for food / To restore their soul. / See, O Jehovah, and look, / For I have become despised.
Lam. 1:12 Is it nothing to you, all who pass by the way? / Look and see / If there is any pain like my pain / Which is dealt to me, / Whom Jehovah has afflicted / In the day of His burning anger.
Lam. 1:13 He has sent fire from on high / Into my bones, and it prevails against them; / He has spread out a net for my feet; / He has turned me back; / He has made me a desolation / And faint all the day.
Lam. 1:14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by His hand; / They are knit together; / They have come up upon my neck; / He has made my strength fail; / The Lord has delivered me into hands / From which I am not able to rise up.
Lam. 1:15 The Lord has made light of all my mighty men / In my midst; / He has called an assembly against me / To crush my young men. / The Lord has trodden, as in a winepress, / The virgin daughter of Judah.
Lam. 1:16 For these things I weep; / My eye, my eye runs down with water, / For the comforter who should revive my soul / Is far from me; / My children have become desolate, / Because the enemy has prevailed.
Lam. 1:17 Zion stretches out her hands, / Yet there is no one to comfort her. / Jehovah has commanded concerning Jacob / That those around him should be his adversaries; / Jerusalem has become an impurity / Among them.
Lam. 1:18 Jehovah is righteous, / For I have rebelled against His commandment. / Hear now, all the peoples, / And see my pain; / My virgins and my young men / Have gone into captivity.
Lam. 1:19 I have called to my lovers; / They have deceived me; / My priests and my elders / Have perished in the city, / While they sought food for themselves / To restore their souls.
Lam. 1:20 See, O Jehovah, for I am in distress, / My bowels are in ferment; / My heart is overturned within me, / For I have been very rebellious. / In the street the sword bereaves; / In the house it is like death.

Lam. 1:21 They have heard that I groan; / There is no one to comfort me; / All my enemies have heard of my trouble; / They are glad that You have done it. / You will bring the day that You have proclaimed, / And they will be like me.
Lam. 1:22 Let all their wickedness come before You, / And deal with them / As You have dealt with me / For all my transgressions; / For my sighs are many, / And my heart is faint.

Lamentations 2

Lam. 2:1 How the Lord in His anger / Has covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud! / He has cast from heaven to earth / The glory of Israel, / And has not remembered His footstool / In the day of His anger.
Lam. 2:2 The Lord has swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob; / He has not spared; / He has torn down in His overflowing wrath / The strongholds of the daughter of Judah. / He has brought them down to the ground; / He has profaned the kingdom and its princes.
Lam. 2:3 He has cut off in fierce anger / All the horn of Israel. / He has withdrawn His right hand / From before the enemy. / He has burned among Jacob like a flame of fire; / It consumes all around.
Lam. 2:4 He has bent His bow like an enemy; / He has set His right hand like an adversary / And has slain all that was pleasant to the eye. / In the tent of the daughter of Zion / He has poured out His wrath like fire.
Lam. 2:5 The Lord has become like an enemy; / He has swallowed up Israel; / He has swallowed up all her palaces; / He has destroyed her strongholds / And multiplied in the daughter of Judah / Mourning and lamentation.
Lam. 2:6 And He has violently taken away His pavilion like a garden; / He has destroyed the place of His assembly; / Jehovah has caused the appointed feast and the Sabbath / To be forgotten in Zion; / He has despised, in the indignation of His anger, / The king and the priest.
Lam. 2:7 The Lord has cast off His altar; / He has abhorred His sanctuary; / He has delivered up into the hand of the enemy / The walls of her palaces. / They have made a noise in the house of Jehovah / As though it were the day of an appointed feast.
Lam. 2:8 Jehovah has thought to destroy / The walls of the daughter of Zion; / He has stretched out the line / And has not withdrawn His hand from destroying; / And He has made the rampart and the wall to mourn; / They languish together.
Lam. 2:9 Her gates have sunk into the ground; / He has destroyed and broken her bars; / Her king and her princes are among nations / Where there is no law; / Her prophets also do not find / A vision from Jehovah.
Lam. 2:10 The elders of the daughter of Zion / Sit on the ground; they are silent. / They have cast dust upon their head; / They have girded themselves with sackcloth. / The virgins of Jerusalem / Hang down their head to the ground.
Lam. 2:11 My eyes are consumed with tears; / My bowels are in ferment; / My liver is poured out on the earth, / Because of the brokenness of the daughter of my people, / Because the little ones and the nursing children / Faint in the streets of the city.
Lam. 2:12 They say to their mothers, / Where is the grain and the wine? / When they faint like one wounded / In the streets of the city, / When they pour out their soul / Into their mothers· bosom.
Lam. 2:13 What shall I testify to you? What shall I liken you to, / O daughter of Jerusalem? / What shall I compare you to, that I may comfort you, / O virgin daughter of Zion? / For your breach is great like a sea. / Who will heal you?
Lam. 2:14 Your prophets have seen for you / Vanity and folly, / And they have not uncovered your iniquity / To turn again your captivity; / But they have seen for you burdens / Of vanity and of causes of banishment.
Lam. 2:15 All those who pass on the way / Clap their hands at you; / They hiss and wag their head / At the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, / Is this the city which they called, / The perfection of beauty, / The joy of the whole earth?
Lam. 2:16 All your enemies / Have opened their mouth against you; / They hiss and gnash the teeth; / They say, We have swallowed her up. / This is certainly the day that we have looked for; / We have found it; we have seen it.
Lam. 2:17 Jehovah has done what He purposed; / He has fulfilled His word, / Which He commanded from the days of old; / He has torn down and has not spared, / And He has caused the enemy to rejoice over you; / He has exalted the horn of your adversaries.

Lam. 2:18 Their heart cried out to the Lord: / O wall of the daughter of Zion, / Let tears run down like a stream / Day and night; / Give yourself no respite; / Let not the pupil of your eye cease.
Lam. 2:19 Arise, cry out in the night / At the beginning of the watches; / Pour out your heart like water / Before the face of the Lord; / Lift up your hands toward Him / For the life of your little ones, / Who faint because of famine / At the head of every street.
Lam. 2:20 See, O Jehovah, and look, / With whom You have dealt thus? / Shall the women eat their fruit, / The little ones nursed by them? / Shall the priest and the prophet be slain / In the sanctuary of the Lord?
Lam. 2:21 The youth and the old man / Lie on the ground in the streets; / My virgins and my young men / Have fallen by the sword; / You have slain them in the day of Your anger; / You have slaughtered; You have not spared.
Lam. 2:22 You have called for, as though in the day of an appointed feast, / My terrors on every side, / And in the day of Jehovah·s anger / There was none who escaped or remained; / Those whom I have nursed and brought up / My enemy has consumed.

Lamentations 3

Lam. 3:1 I am the man who has seen affliction / By the rod of His wrath.
Lam. 3:2 He has driven me and brought me / Into darkness and not light.
Lam. 3:3 Surely against me He has turned His hand / Again and again all the day.
Lam. 3:4 He has wasted my flesh and my skin; / He has broken my bones.
Lam. 3:5 He has built up a siege against me / And encircled me with gall and travail.
Lam. 3:6 He has made me dwell in dark places, / Like those who have long been dead.
Lam. 3:7 He has walled me about so that I cannot go forth; / He has made my bronze chain heavy.
Lam. 3:8 Indeed, when I cry out and call for help, / He shuts out my prayer.
Lam. 3:9 He has walled in my ways with hewn stone; / He has made my paths crooked.
Lam. 3:10 He is to me like a bear lying in wait, / Like a lion in hidden places.
Lam. 3:11 He has turned aside my ways and torn me to pieces; / He has made me desolate.
Lam. 3:12 He bent His bow / And set me as a target for the arrow.
Lam. 3:13 He has caused the arrows of His quiver / To enter my inward parts.
Lam. 3:14 I have become a derision to all my people, / Their mocking song all the day.
Lam. 3:15 He has filled me with bitterness; / He has made me drunk with wormwood.
Lam. 3:16 He has also crushed my teeth with gravel; / He has covered me with ashes.
Lam. 3:17 And You have removed my soul far from peace; / I have forgotten prosperity.
Lam. 3:18 And I said, My strength has perished / As well as my hope in Jehovah.
Lam. 3:19 Remember my affliction and my wandering, / The wormwood and the gall.
Lam. 3:20 My soul remembers them well / And is bowed down within me.
Lam. 3:21 This I recall to my heart; / Therefore I have hope.
Lam. 3:22 It is Jehovah·s lovingkindness that we are not consumed, / For His compassions do not fail;
Lam. 3:23 They are new every morning; / Great is Your faithfulness.
Lam. 3:24 Jehovah is my portion, says my soul; / Therefore I hope in Him.
Lam. 3:25 Jehovah is good to those who wait on Him, / To the soul that seeks Him.
Lam. 3:26 It is good for one to hope, and to do so in silence, / For the salvation of Jehovah.
Lam. 3:27 It is good for a man to bear / The yoke in his youth.
Lam. 3:28 Let him sit alone and be silent, / Because He has laid it upon him.
Lam. 3:29 Let him put his mouth in the dust · / Perhaps there is hope.
Lam. 3:30 Let him give his cheek to him who strikes him; / Let him be filled with reproach.
Lam. 3:31 For the Lord will not / Cast off forever.
Lam. 3:32 But even if He causes grief, He will have compassion / According to the multitude of His lovingkindness;
Lam. 3:33 For He does not afflict willingly / Or grieve the children of men.
Lam. 3:34 The crushing under his foot / Of all the prisoners of the earth,

Lam. 3:35 The turning aside of the justice due a man / Before the face of the Most High,
Lam. 3:36 The wronging of a man in his cause · / Will not the Lord see all these?
Lam. 3:37 Who is he who says, and it comes to pass, / What the Lord has not commanded?
Lam. 3:38 Out of the mouth of the Most High / Do there not proceed evil things and something good?
Lam. 3:39 Why does a living man complain, / A man for the punishment of his sins?
Lam. 3:40 Let us examine our ways and try them, / And let us turn again to Jehovah.
Lam. 3:41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands / Unto God in the heavens.
Lam. 3:42 We have transgressed and rebelled; / You have not pardoned.
Lam. 3:43 You have covered Yourself with anger and have pursued us; / You have slain; You have not spared.
Lam. 3:44 You have covered Yourself with a cloud / That prayer might not pass through.
Lam. 3:45 You have made us offscouring and refuse / In the midst of the peoples.
Lam. 3:46 All our enemies have opened / Their mouths against us.
Lam. 3:47 Fear and the pit are upon us, / Devastation and destruction.
Lam. 3:48 My eye runs down with streams of water / For the destruction of the daughter of my people.
Lam. 3:49 My eye pours forth and does not stop; / There is no cessation,
Lam. 3:50 Until Jehovah looks down / And sees from the heavens.
Lam. 3:51 My eye pains my soul / Because of all the daughters of my city.
Lam. 3:52 They have hunted me down like a bird, / They who are my enemies without cause.
Lam. 3:53 They have brought my life to its end in the pit / And have thrown a stone upon me.
Lam. 3:54 Water streamed over my head; / I said, I have been cut off.
Lam. 3:55 I called upon Your name, O Jehovah, / From the lowest pit.
Lam. 3:56 You have heard my voice; do not hide / Your ear at my breathing, at my cry.
Lam. 3:57 You drew near in the day that I called upon You; / You said, Do not fear.
Lam. 3:58 Lord, You have pleaded my soul·s case; / You have redeemed my life.
Lam. 3:59 You have seen, O Jehovah, my oppression; / Judge my cause.
Lam. 3:60 You have seen all their vengeance, / All their plans, against me.
Lam. 3:61 You have heard their reproach, O Jehovah, / All their plans against me,
Lam. 3:62 The lips of those who rise up against me / And their meditation against me all the day.
Lam. 3:63 Look upon their sitting down and their rising up; / I am their mocking song.
Lam. 3:64 You will render to them a recompense, O Jehovah, / According to the work of their hands.
Lam. 3:65 You will give them hardness of heart; / Your curse be upon them.
Lam. 3:66 You will pursue them in anger and will destroy them / From under the heavens of Jehovah.

Lamentations 4

Lam. 4:1 How the gold has become dim! / How the most pure gold has changed! / The stones of the sanctuary lie poured out / At the head of every street.
Lam. 4:2 The precious sons of Zion, / Comparable to fine gold, / How they are esteemed as earthen pitchers, / The work of the hands of a potter.
Lam. 4:3 Even the jackals present the breast; / They nurse their young ones; / But the daughter of my people has become cruel, / Like the ostriches in the wilderness.
Lam. 4:4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaves / To the roof of his mouth for thirst; / The little ones ask for bread, / But no one breaks it for them.
Lam. 4:5 Those who fed on delicacies / Are desolate in the streets; / Those who were brought up in scarlet / Embrace dung heaps.
Lam. 4:6 And the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater / Than the sin of Sodom, / Which was overthrown as in a moment; / And no hands were laid on her.
Lam. 4:7 Her nobles were purer than snow; / They were whiter than milk; / They were redder in body than corals; / Their figure was like sapphire.
Lam. 4:8 Their visage is darker than black coal; / They are not recognized in the streets. / Their skin has shriveled up on their bones; / It has dried up; it has become like wood.
Lam. 4:9 Those who were slain by the sword are better / Than those slain by famine; / For these pine away stricken through, / Because of the lack of the produce of the field.

Lam. 4:10 The hands of compassionate women / Have boiled their own children; / They have become their food / In the destruction of the daughter of my people.
Lam. 4:11 Jehovah has accomplished His wrath; / He has poured out His burning anger. / And He has kindled a fire in Zion, / And it has consumed its foundations.
Lam. 4:12 The kings of the earth did not believe, / Neither did any of the inhabitants of the world, / That the adversary and the enemy would enter / Into the gates of Jerusalem.
Lam. 4:13 It is because of the sins of her prophets, / And the iniquities of her priests, / Who have shed the blood of the righteous / In her midst.
Lam. 4:14 They have wandered about blind in the streets; / They are polluted with blood; / So that men cannot touch / Their garments.
Lam. 4:15 They cried out to them, Depart! Unclean! / Depart, depart; do not touch! / When they fled away and wandered about, men said among the nations, / They will no longer sojourn there.
Lam. 4:16 The anger of Jehovah has scattered them; / He will no longer regard them. / They did not honor the priests, / Nor did they favor the elders.
Lam. 4:17 Our eyes do yet fail, / Looking in vain for our help; / In our watching we watched / For a nation that could not save.
Lam. 4:18 They hunted our steps, / So that we cannot walk in our streets; / Our end drew near; our days were fulfilled; / For our end had come.
Lam. 4:19 Our pursuers were swifter / Than the eagles of heaven; / They hotly pursued us on the mountains; / They lay in wait for us in the wilderness.
Lam. 4:20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of Jehovah, / Has been captured in their pits, / Of whom we said, Under his shadow / We will live among the nations.
Lam. 4:21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, / Who dwells in the land of Uz. / Yet the cup will pass through to you also; / You will become drunk and make yourself naked.
Lam. 4:22 The punishment for your iniquity has been accomplished, O daughter of Zion; / He will no longer take you into exile. / But He will punish your iniquity, O daughter of Edom; / He will uncover your sins.

Lamentations 5

Lam. 5:1 Remember, O Jehovah, what has come upon us; / Look and see our reproach.
Lam. 5:2 Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers, / Our houses to foreigners.
Lam. 5:3 We are orphans without father; / Our mothers are like widows.
Lam. 5:4 We have drunk our water for money; / Our wood comes to us at a price.
Lam. 5:5 On our necks are our pursuers; / We are weary; we have no rest.
Lam. 5:6 We have given our hand to Egypt / And to Assyria, so as to be satisfied with bread.
Lam. 5:7 Our fathers sinned and they are not, / And we ourselves bear their iniquities.
Lam. 5:8 Slaves rule over us; / There is no one to deliver us from their hand.
Lam. 5:9 We get our bread at the risk of our lives / Because of the sword from the wilderness.
Lam. 5:10 Our skin is black like an oven / Because of the burning heat of famine.
Lam. 5:11 They have ravished the women in Zion, / The virgins in the cities of Judah.
Lam. 5:12 Princes were hanged by them. / The faces of the elders were not honored.
Lam. 5:13 The young men bore the mill, / And the young boys stumbled under the wood.
Lam. 5:14 The old men have ceased from the gate, / The young men from their music.
Lam. 5:15 The joy of our heart has ceased; / Our dance has been turned into mourning.
Lam. 5:16 The crown has fallen from our head. / Woe to us! For we have sinned.
Lam. 5:17 Because of this our heart is faint; / Because of these things our eyes are dim;
Lam. 5:18 Because of Mount Zion, which is desolate · / Foxes rove in it.
Lam. 5:19 You, O Jehovah, abide forever; / Your throne is from generation to generation.
Lam. 5:20 Why do You forget us forever / And forsake us for so long a time?
Lam. 5:21 Turn us back to You, O Jehovah, and we will be turned; / Renew our days as before.
Lam. 5:22 Or have You utterly rejected us? / Are You exceedingly angry with us?
