Amos 5

Amos 5:1 Hear this word that I take up as a lamentation over you, O house of Israel.
Amos 5:2 Fallen and no more to rise / Is the virgin of Israel; / She has been cast down upon her land; / There is none to raise her up.
Amos 5:3 For thus says the Lord Jehovah,The city that sent forth a thousand / Will have a hundred left, / And that which sent forth a hundred / Will have ten left, / To the house of Israel.
Amos 5:4 For thus says Jehovah to the house of Israel,Seek Me, and live;
Amos 5:5 And do not seek Bethel, / Nor go to Gilgal, / Nor pass on to Beer-sheba; / For Gilgal will surely go into captivity, / And Bethel will become vanity.
Amos 5:6 Seek Jehovah, and live; / Lest He rush upon the house of Joseph like fire, / And it devour it, and there be none to extinguish the fire in Bethel.
Amos 5:7 They turn justice to wormwood / And thrust righteousness down to the ground.
Amos 5:8 He who makes the Pleiades and Orion / And turns the shadow of death into the morning / And darkens the day with the night; / He who calls for the water of the sea / And pours it upon the surface of the earth, / Jehovah is His name,
Amos 5:9 Who causes destruction to flash forth upon the strong, / So that destruction comes upon the fortress.
Amos 5:10 They hate him who reproves in the gate, / And him who speaks with integrity they abhor.
Amos 5:11 Therefore because you trample upon the poor / And take a forced gift of wheat from them; / You have built houses of hewn stone, / But you will not dwell in them; / You have planted desirable vineyards, / But you will not drink their wine.

Amos 5:12 For I know that your transgressions are many / And that your sins are mighty, / You who vex the righteous and take ransom payment / And turn aside justice for the needy in the gate.
Amos 5:13 Therefore he who has insight will keep silent at this time, for it is an evil time.
Amos 5:14 Seek good and not evil, / In order that you may live; / And so Jehovah the God of hosts will be with you, / As you say.
Amos 5:15 Hate evil and love good, / And set up justice in the gate. / Perhaps Jehovah the God of hosts will be gracious / To the remnant of Joseph.
Amos 5:16 Therefore thus says Jehovah, / The God of hosts, the Lord: / In all the open plazas there will be wailing, / And in all the streets they will say, Alas! Alas! / And they will call the farmer to mourning, / And for wailing to those skilled in lamentation.
Amos 5:17 In all the vineyards there will be wailing, / For I will pass through your midst, says Jehovah.
Amos 5:18 Woe to you who desire / The day of Jehovah! / What good is the day of Jehovah to you? / It will be darkness and not light,
Amos 5:19 As when a man flees from before a lion / And encounters a bear, / Or goes into the house and leans his hand against the wall, / And a serpent bites him.
Amos 5:20 Will not the day of Jehovah be darkness and not light, / Even deep darkness and no brightness to it?
Amos 5:21 I hate, I despise, your feasts, / And I will not delight in your solemn assemblies.
Amos 5:22 For if you offer up to Me burnt offerings / And your meal offerings, I will not accept them; / Nor will I regard the peace offerings of your fatted animals.
Amos 5:23 Take the noise of your songs away from Me, / For I will not hear the melody of your harps.
Amos 5:24 But let justice roll down like water, / And righteousness, like an ever-flowing river.
Amos 5:25 Did you bring Me sacrifices and meal offerings / In the wilderness for forty years, O house of Israel?
Amos 5:26 Indeed, you took up Sikkuth your king / And Kiyyun your images, the star of your gods that you made for yourselves.
Amos 5:27 Thus I will bring you into captivity / Beyond Damascus, says Jehovah; / The God of hosts is His name.

Amos 6

Amos 6:1 Woe to those who are at ease in Zion / And to those who are secure in the mountain of Samaria, / The distinguished among the chief of the nations, / To whom the house of Israel comes!
Amos 6:2 Go over into Calneh, and see; / And go from there to Hamath the great; / Then go down to Gath of the Philistines. / Are they better than these kingdoms? / Or is their territory greater than your territory?
Amos 6:3 You who thrust away the evil day / And cause the seat of violence to draw near,
Amos 6:4 You who lie upon beds of ivory / And sprawl out upon your couches / And eat the lambs from the flock / And the calves from the midst of the stall,
Amos 6:5 You who prattle to the tune of the harp, / Who make for yourselves instruments of song like David,
Amos 6:6 You who drink wine in sacrificial bowls / And anoint yourselves with the finest oils; / Yet you are not grieved about the destruction of Joseph.
Amos 6:7 Therefore they will now go into captivity with the first of the captives, / And the cry of revelry from those who sprawled themselves out will pass away.
Amos 6:8 The Lord Jehovah has sworn by Himself, / Declares Jehovah the God of hosts, / I abhor the pride of Jacob, / And his palaces I hate; / Therefore I will deliver up the city and its fullness.
Amos 6:9 And if ten men remain in one house, they will die.
Amos 6:10 When his kinsman, that is, he who should burn his body, takes him up to bring his bones from the house, and says to him who is in the innermost part of the house, Are there any more with you, and that one says, None; then he will say, Hush, for the name of Jehovah should not be mentioned.
Amos 6:11 For it is Jehovah who commands, / And He will strike the great house into fragments / And the little house into pieces.
Amos 6:12 Do horses run on rock? / Or does one plow there with oxen? / But you have turned justice into poison, / And the fruit of righteousness into wormwood,

Amos 6:13 You who rejoice in that which is nothing, / You who say, Have we not taken / By our own strength horns for ourselves?
Amos 6:14 For I am about to raise up a nation over you, / O house of Israel, declares Jehovah the God of hosts, / And they will oppress you / From the entrance of Hamath / To the brook of the Arabah.

Amos 7

Amos 7:1 Thus the Lord Jehovah showed me, and there He was, forming locusts in the beginning of the springing up of the spring crop; and it was the spring crop after the king·s mowings.
Amos 7:2 And when their eating of the herbage of the land was complete, I said, O Lord Jehovah, forgive, I beseech You! How will Jacob stand, for he is small?
Amos 7:3 Jehovah repented concerning this: It shall not be, says Jehovah.
Amos 7:4 Thus the Lord Jehovah showed me, and there the Lord Jehovah was, calling to contend with them with fire; and it devoured the great deep, and it devoured the land.
Amos 7:5 Then I said, O Lord Jehovah, Stop, I beseech You! How will Jacob stand, for he is small?
Amos 7:6 Jehovah repented concerning this: This also shall not be, says the Lord Jehovah.

Amos 7:9 And the high places of Isaac will be desolated, / And the sanctuaries of Israel will be made waste; / And I will rise up against the house of Jeroboam with a sword.
Amos 7:10 Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent word to Jeroboam the king of Israel, saying, Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel; the land is not able to endure all his words.
Amos 7:11 For thus says Amos, By the sword Jeroboam will die, and Israel will surely go into captivity out from its land.
Amos 7:12 Then Amaziah said to Amos, Go, you seer; flee into the land of Judah, and eat bread there, and prophesy there;
Amos 7:13 But in Bethel you shall not ever prophesy again, for it is the king·s sanctuary and it is the royal residence.
Amos 7:14 Then Amos answered and said to Amaziah, I am no prophet, nor am I the son of a prophet; rather I am a herdsman and a dresser of sycamores.
Amos 7:15 And Jehovah took me from following the flock, and Jehovah said to me, Go, prophesy to My people Israel.
Amos 7:16 And now hear the word of Jehovah: You say, You shall not prophesy against Israel, nor shall you speak against the house of Isaac.
Amos 7:17 Therefore thus says Jehovah,Your wife will go about as a harlot in the city, / And your sons and your daughters will fall by the sword, / And your land will be divided by the line, / And you yourself will die in a land that is unclean; / And Israel will indeed go into captivity / Out from its land.

Amos 8:4 Hear this, you who pant after the needy / To destroy the wretched of the earth,
Amos 8:5 Saying, When will the new moon be over, that we may sell grain? / And the Sabbath, that we may lay open the wheat? / In order to make the ephah small and the shekel large / And to falsify the balances for deceit;
Amos 8:6 That we may buy the poor for silver / And the needy for a pair of sandals, / And sell the refuse of the wheat.

Amos 8:7 Jehovah has sworn by the excellency of Jacob, / I shall by no means forget any of their deeds forever.
Amos 8:8 Will the land not quake because of this, / And will all who dwell in it not mourn? / Indeed all of it will rise up like the River, / And it will be driven and will sink like the river of Egypt.
Amos 8:9 And in that day, / Declares the Lord Jehovah, / I will cause the sun to go down at noon, / And I will darken the land in the light of day.
Amos 8:10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning / And all your songs into lamentation; / And I will bring up sackcloth upon all the loins / And baldness upon every head; / And I will make it like the mourning for an only child / And the end of it like a bitter day.
Amos 8:11 Indeed days are coming, / Declares the Lord Jehovah, / When I will send a hunger into the land, / Not a hunger for bread / Nor a thirst for water, / But for hearing the words of Jehovah.
Amos 8:12 And they will totter from sea to sea, / And from the north even to the east; / They will rove about, seeking the word of Jehovah, / But they will not find it.
Amos 8:13 In that day the beautiful virgins and the young men / Will swoon because of thirst.
Amos 8:14 They who swear by the trespass of Samaria / And say, As your god lives, O Dan! / And, As the way of Beer-sheba lives! / Indeed they will fall and not rise up again.

And He said,Strike the capitals of the pillars / That the thresholds may shake. / And break them off upon the heads of them all, / And the last of them I will slay with the sword: / Any one of them who flees will not flee away, / And any one of them who escapes will not slip by.
Amos 9:2 Though they dig into Sheol, / From there My hand will take them; / And though they go up into heaven, / From there I will bring them down.
Amos 9:3 And though they hide at the top of Carmel, / From there I will seek them and take them. / And though they hide themselves from My sight on the floor of the sea, / There I will command the serpent, and it will bite them.

Amos 9:10 All the sinners of My people / Will die by the sword, / Those who say, Evil will not overtake us / Nor come before us on all sides.
Amos 9:11 In that day I will raise up / The fallen tabernacle of David, / And I will wall up its breaches / And raise up its ruins / And build it up as it was in the days of old;
Amos 9:12 That they may possess the remnant of Edom and all the nations which are called by My name, declares Jehovah who does this.
Amos 9:13 Indeed days are coming, / Declares Jehovah, / When the plowman will overtake the reaper, / And the grape treader, him who sows the seed; / And the mountains will drip sweet wine, / And all the hills will melt.
